

Kettler Kapers

By TEO CUNNINGHAM, Lomita 232-J

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! There are only 21 more days until the books close, and if you aren't registered to vote by then, you are out of luck. The very best way to be sure that you're not one of the unfortunate ones is to contact Mrs. Olga Brown, for she will gladly register you. If you are not able to make it, to her home at 2935 Middlebrook Rd., then call her at Lomita 2924-W and she will come to yours.

New arrival, Stephen John, is the cause of all the excitement in the home of Cliff and Betty Graybehl, 23108 Huber St. The couple's third son, Stephen, was born at Torrance Memorial Hospital Aug. 8 at 2 a.m., tipping the scales at 6 lbs., 11 oz. Big brothers Robbie, 5 and Howard, 2, were very proud and happy to greet the new arrival. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilby of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Graybehl of Santa Monica.

There is no foolin' about the excitement reigning in the home of Bill and LaVonia Russell, of 23565 Falena St., for the couple became the proud parents of their first child, a 7 lbs., 4 oz. son born a week ago last Saturday, Aug. 9. The Russells' new heir, who has been named James William, arrived at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell of Huntington Park, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robertson of Coolidge, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are staying with Bill and LaVonia for a while, at least until they get a little used to having a new "man around the house." Bill is a fireman for the city of Torrance, and a member of the popular "Firehouse Five."

Unexpected guests always add spice to life, and one such as Larry and Wilma Brown had last Friday night is also most pleasurable. Miss Marcel Harris of New York City winged into the Southland and, renewing old friendships, stopped by to visit with Larry and Wilma for a few days. Miss Harris is a psychologist who has, along with Dr. Beck of SC, done a great deal of work in the presentation of the story of "The Birds and Bees" to children. She and Wilma were schoolmates in Oregon.

Speaking of surprises, there was a very surprised sister at the Tracey Dale household on Reynosa Dr. last week, when Mr. and Mrs. Julius Grant and children Debbie and Christy of Cedar Rapids, Ia., drove up to the home of Louise and Tracey. They found the George Day family from Marshalltown, Ia. there, too. Mrs. Dale, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Day are sisters, and Adria Grant didn't know that Eleanor Day was coming west and would be here at the same time. . . lacking but one other sister, it would have been a complete family reunion. Speaking of Dale's, we are happy to hear also that Tracey has returned to work. . . it was long siege, but we're glad that it's a thing of the past now.

Mrs. Anna (Stuart) Todd was a recent hostess at a birthday luncheon honoring Mrs. Faye Curry of Reynosa Dr. Those gathering to wish Faye many happy returns of the day were Mesdames Ruth Luvann, Marge Simpson, Lois Phillips and the hostess, Anna Todd.

Phoenix, Ariz. is the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dean Richards, who are visiting with Harry and Thelma Setzer of Walnut St. They arrived last Sunday and plan to spend about two weeks renewing their friendship and taking in the sights. Harry, however, will only be home on weekends, as he had to report back to San Diego for naval duty last Monday.

Scouts Earn Swim Badges

Three local Scouts from Explorer Troop 115-X have completed training for the Life Saving and Swimmers Merit Badge, the Los Angeles City Department of Recreation and Parks reported this week.

The boys are Life Scouts Ken Spain, Bob Irvin and Don Tintin, now all on the way to becoming Eagle Scouts.

Junior life-saving classes are open Friday mornings at 11:30 at the Gaffey St. pool.

Karen Clever of Calamar St. celebrated her seventh birthday last week with 21 of the neighborhood children in for lunch, which consisted of sandwiches, kool-aid and, of course, a gaily decorated birthday cake with Karen's name on it, and ice cream. Games were played with prizes going to Jimmy Palumbo and Sharon Hopper. The birthday girl was really excited when it came time to open her gifts, and oh! and ahs! were plentiful from her many friends. That evening she packed a few things and went to spend a week in Claremont with her cousin, Tommy Graham. The Clever family went after her last Sunday.

Speaking of birthdays, is my face red . . . it was Millie West's birthday the 9th instead of Walt's . . . please 'cuse me Millie, but it doesn't make the wish less sincere and I do hope that you had a nice day.

This is really a birthday week! We have several, so let's start off with Betty Anderson's, which comes on the 21st, then on the 22nd is Cynthia Wentz' and Mrs. Ethel Anderson, and the next day Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Hazel Sullivan's. The 25th sees Eddie Friberg and Mary Sands celebrating their natal day, and the 26th is Gordon Jones' and my own dear love, Kenneth. Winding up the week is Jimmy Palumbo's on the 27th. Happy birthday, best wishes, and all the rest of the rigamarole that goes into a birthday greeting. There is also a belated birthday wish for little Judy Clutter who reached the ripe old age of six yesterday.

There is an anniversary wish for many more years of happiness together for Frank and Helen Cannon on the 19th, and one for David and Marie Poole on the 21st. I think that the Frank Currys deserve several wishes, and many, many congratulations, for they celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary last Monday.

Mrs. Rose Schaefer wants to express her thanks to all of you who have brought your old but wearable clothing to her. . . she has been able to help a needy family right here in our fair city, and to send good-sized packages to the Pope's warehouse in Italy and Austria. She is still asking for more, so if you have any, either call her at Lomita 780-J or drop them off at her home at 2806 Gramercy. If she isn't home when you bring them, just leave them at the back doorstep.

Sure was sorry to hear about the auto accident that Mrs. Gerie Horner, of 1812 Reynosa Dr. was in a week ago last Sunday in San Pedro. . . fortunately she was only badly bruised and choked, so didn't need hospitalization, but the car isn't much usable any more. . . and her left hand, which at first they thought was broken, is still sore. Glad that it wasn't any worse, though, and that she's feeling better.

Also am glad to hear that Kitty Walsberg of Reynosa Dr. is feeling almost like "new" again after surgery at Torrance Memorial Hospital last week. She is home and around a little, but still "wobbly in the knees."

A very nice luncheon and shower was the one Mrs. Dorothy Oliver hosted for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gayle (Stuart) Oliver, recently in her home on Middlebrook Rd. The baby theme was carried out in pale green and orchid shades. The luncheon table was centered by that ol' long-legged bird, Mr. Stork himself, and small storks made of safety pins standing in gumdrops were the favors. . . the very delicious luncheon was finished off with a stork-decorated cake, ice cream and coffee. Many lovely gifts were piled around a high chair, which in itself was one of the gifts. Mrs. Gayle Oliver won the first prize and Mrs. Lucille Harbold the booby prize for the game which was played after the meal. Those attending were Mesdames Hazel Oliver and Lucille Harbold of Los Angeles, Jackie Voal and Carmen VanHooser of Long Beach, Mabel McNitt, Edna Greber, the hostess Dorothy Oliver, Miss Betty Hjeke, and the honoree, Gayle Oliver.

Mary and Louis Richle report that though the fish must have seen them coming and took off for other parts, they did have a wonderful time on their vacation. They had a small trailer and spent a week just relaxing and fishing at Estero Beach in Lower California. Sure sounds like fun!
